You are filing for Emergency Unemployment Compensation (EUC). You must make at least one valid work search for each week you claim EUC. The following is considered a valid work search: Contact with a person who has the authority to hire; submitting an application or resume to an employer; or, if in Alaska, applying for a job on the Alaska Labor Exchange System (ALEXsys). For EUC purposes, a valid work search does not include contact with a public or private employment agency; unions or hiring halls; or a call to the UI Claim Center.

If you do not report a valid work search for each week you claim, you will be disqualified from receiving EUC for the week unless you are: serving on a State or Federal jury; hospitalized for an emergency or life-threatening condition; enrolled in an agency approved training course; or working for an employer.

Date of contact (mm/dd/yyyy)	Business name and phone number If work searches were conducted through Craigslist, Monster.com or any other job search engines, you must either provide the job ID number or a brief description of the job that was applied for. (Example: "Craigslist, 1110000, Clerk")	Method of contact (i.e. Internet, telephone, in person)

CERTIFICATION: I certify that the information I have provided in this statement is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand that the law provides penalties for false statements or the withholding of material facts to obtain unemployment insurance benefits.
